

October 9, 2020

Member of the European Parliament

The Honourable Berit Reiss-Andersen
Chair
The Norwegian Nobel Committee
NO-0255 Oslo, Norway

Dear Chair Reiss-Andersen and Members of the Norwegian Nobel Committee,

I, the undersigned Member of the European Parliament, respectfully nominate President Donald J. Trump to receive the 2021 Nobel Peace Prize in recognition of his endeavours to end the era of endless wars, construct peace by encouraging conflicting parties for dialogue and negotiations, as well as underpin internal cohesion and stability of his country.

President Trump has served almost a complete presidential term without starting a new war. This would be the first time for almost four decades, when the President of the United States of America has served a term without engaging his country to new conflicts. Moreover, he has fulfilled his previous campaign pledge by withdrawing thousands of troops from Iraq and Afghanistan.

On September 15, 2020, President Trump, together with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, United Arab Emirates Foreign Minister Abdullah bin Zayed al-Nahyan and Bahrain Foreign Minister Khalid bin Ahmed Al Khalifa, signed historic peace deals in Washington D.C. The peace deals, together called as the Abraham Accords, established full diplomatic relations between Israel and the United Arab Emirates, and Israel and Bahrain. The role of President Trump as a mediator of the Abraham Accords, which potentially mark the dawn of a new Middle East, was indispensable.

Finally, President Trump has maintained national cohesion and secured law and order by taking a strong stand against detrimental social movements, which fragment the society by turning different parts of population against each other, and commit vandalism on public and private property and violence against the police authorities and ordinary citizens. It is hard to imagine a president of the United States from the last decades, or a current head of state, who would deserve more the Committee's recognition in 2021 than President Trump for his efforts to build peace in the world.

Sincerely,

Laura Huhtasaari
Member of European Parliament